

Harold Kessler

Educational Background: BS, General Business/Economics, Indiana University.

MA, Industrial Relations, University of Illinois.

Dispute Resolution Experience:

* District of Columbia Bar Association Attorney-Client Arbitration Board- member of board arbitrating fee and malpractice disputes between attorneys and clients.

*Conflict Resolution Center of Montgomery County volunteer mediator in program providing dispute resolution services throughout the county.

* Montgomery County Merit System Protection Board-Member of Board which adjudicates County employee appeals and grievances.

* Montgomery County Maryland's State's Attorney's Mediation Program- Volunteer mediator for disputes arising in the Maryland Court System.

*District Court Mediator performing day-of-trial mediation at the direction of the presiding judge in cases in small claims court and peace order docket.

Teaching Experience: Previously an adjunct professor at St. Louis University teaching labor economics and collective bargaining courses.

Certified as BBB AUTO LINE arbitrator 1988